

Please join us for...

The Soaring Spirits Loss Foundation
2009 National Conference on Widowhood
July 17-19, 2009 San Diego, California

The SSLF National Conference on Widowhood brings together inspiring role models in a hope-filled, supportive environment to provide a variety of programs focused on giving individuals the tools they need to rebuild their lives after the devastating loss of a spouse. By joining our hearts through the shared experience of grief, and encouraging each other to create a life of purpose and joy—we can change the face of widowhood. We need you, sign up today!

The National Conference for Widowhood will include – a meet and greet reception that provides an opportunity for widows signed up in the Widow Match program to meet their matches and the many other attendees to meet and mingle; an outdoor benefit concert; a general session; thirty-two break-out sessions featuring a variety of relevant topics and speakers; a formal gala, and the First Annual Widow Dash 5k Run/Walk.

When: July 17-19, 2009

Where: San Diego Marriott Hotel & Marina

Cost: Regular registration...$375 On-site registration...$400

Register today and receive 25% off the cost of registration!

Use coupon code: SSLF81793XX5

For additional information: www.sslf.org 877-671-4071 ext 706

This is a unique and exciting opportunity to meet people just like you that are searching for the light at the end of the tunnel. Come experience the energy and hope that will make this conference a weekend that changes your life...or be the light that changes someone else's!