

Michele Neff Hernandez, Founding President & Executive Director

Michele Neff Hernandez is the Founding President and Executive Director of the Soaring Spirits Loss Foundation. Her creative energy and passion for helping other widows is the driving force behind the SSLF National Conference on Widowhood. In addition to her work with the SSLF, Michele is the founder of www.widowsbond.com and the Widow Match Program, a frequently requested motivational speaker, and a dedicated free-lance writer. She inspires people through her presentations, and in her writing, to truly live the life they are given. Michele resides happily with her three children in Simi Valley, California.

*“We are friends; we must assist each other to bear our burdens.”
~Native American Proverb*